

Brian Chambers

Digital Strategy Consultant at Booz Allen Hamilton

Summary

Entrepreneur, lover of all things tech-related, always on the lookout for products and companies that disrupt the market. Passionate about the sharing community, social connectedness, and social entrepreneurship. Avid reader and traveler, constantly seeking the next adventure. Launched the mobile application "CollegeLife," available on the App Store and Google Play.

Experience

Co-Founder & CEO at CollegeLife

August 2015 - Present

Now HIRING Campus Ambassadors, Apply Through Our Website!

CollegeLife (GreenValley Apps, LLC) is a tech startup that develops informational mobile applications for college students. Our company is focused on solving the common informational problems at universities nation wide. Supporting both Apple and Android devices, current applications (prototypes) include iMadison, iHokie, and iLion. Download the official CollegeLife app for free on the App Store and Google Play.

Digital Strategy Consultant at Booz Allen Hamilton

August 2016 - Present

Consultant, IT Strategist (August 2016 - Present)

- Aligned to the Strategic Innovation Group (SIG) focusing on Digital Strategy to bring new and creative solutions to solve challenging client problems. Our team combines Social, Mobile, Analytics, and Cloud Solutions to capitalize on opportunities in new and existing markets.

Strategic Innovation Group Intern (June 2015 - August 2015)

- Lead developer for a full stack iOS mobile application developed for a government client.
- Led and organized other developers using Agile software development methodologies.
- Developed an iOS application to enrich and populate a database using crowd sourcing and geolocation.
- Worked with the following technologies in developing the application: SQL, Amazon Web Service (AWS), Node.js & Express, RESTful API, Xcode, Swift, and iOS.
- Explored mobile application development, focusing on client interfacing.

Systems Support Technician at James Madison University

August 2014 - January 2015 (5 months)

- Updated system documentation, facilitates on-site troubleshooting, provides limited system training

- Worked with Microsoft Access and SharePoint creating forms, surveys, and resolving site issues
- Answered and responded to inquiries dealing with problems related to PC & Macintosh computers
- Maintained network computers and equipment, including inventory and file management

Information Technology Intern

June 2010 - May 2014 (3 years 11 months)

- Enhanced ability to target clients and enter into new markets boosting profitability by 15%
- Designed & optimized company web site with smartphone compatibility, doubling website traffic
- Transitioned the company to a paperless company through file management and Salesforce
- Established sales protocols and improved accessibility to sales information
- Created a network enabling the sales staff to easily share information both in and out of the office
- Interacted with clients while working at several industrial auctions grossing over $1 million per sale
- Managed the company's network, devices, web page, and social media sites

Education

James Madison University

Bachelor of Business Administration (B.B.A.), Computer Information Systems, 2012 - 2016

Susquehannock High School

2008 - 2012

Activities and Societies: Honor Society, Men's Soccer, Ski Club

Brian Chambers

Digital Strategy Consultant at Booz Allen Hamilton

Contact Brian on LinkedIn